The Oley's Experience...

Come and experience the authentic natural flavors of old-world cuisine. We believe fresh, natural ingredients simply taste better. Whenever possible, without compromising taste or quality, we select ingredients without additives, hormones, nitrates and preservatives. We also think that by using local producers (our friends) we have a pulse on higher quality products while supporting our community. We partner with local farmers committed to natural and organic farming methods.

Allergy Notice: Please be advised we prepare food in a shared facility that may be used to process soybean, peanuts, tree nuts, eggs, fish and shellfish. This includes our mobile catering services. In addition, we extensively use wheat and milk/dairy ingredients. We follow a protocol to keep the surfaces and equipment clean. However, there is potential for cross-contamination including gluten-free menu items.
